

Action Disability Representatives

Service Area

Why does the team at Action Disability Representatives advocate only for clients in the jurisdiction of the Albuquerque Office of Hearings and Appeals?

Representative John Bishop and his team have extensive experience with the Administrative Law Judges in the Albuquerque Office of Disability Adjudication and Review. John Bishop worked in the New Mexico Disability Determination Services from 1987 to 1997 as a disability examiner.

He worked at the New Mexico Disability Hearing Unit as a disability hearing officer from 1997 to 2001. Action Disability Representatives brings a wealth of experience about the decision-makers and their processes in the Albuquerque Office of Disability Adjudication and Review region.

This experience increases the chances of a successful outcome for our clients.

Our team at Action Disability Representatives serves Albuquerque, Los Lunas, Belen, Rio Rancho, Bernalillo and the rest of New Mexico.
